Black and Indian Missions

The Church's National Collection for Black and Indian Missions in the United States will be taken at all Masses next weekend, June 13 & 14. Because of the generosity of the people of parishioners around the U.S., last year, over 9 million dollars were contributed to the Collection and 98 cents of every dollar was distributed. The support went to some of the neediest people across the United States. If we all give a little – a lot will be accomplished.

Gift for Fr. Jack!

On Sunday, June 21, we will be having a collection for a monetary gift for Fr. Jack. We have already given him the gift but anything over the amount we gave him will be forwarded to him. This will be a wonderful way to show your appreciation for all that Fr. Jack has done for our parish communities.

From Barbara . . .

One of the first prayers we learn as a child is the Sign of the Cross. Not only does it remind us of the sacrifice that Jesus made for us, but it honors the Triune God. Not three Gods, but one God in 3 persons, the Trinity. Today we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity, a great mystery of the Christian faith. It is also the formula used for all baptisms. It was the command that Jesus gave to all the disciples (including us) to “go and make disciples of all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit...” Take time this week to think about how you pray the Sign of the Cross and how you live out your baptismal call. It’s not just an introductory prayer to all others but a prayer unto itself.

Thanks to all who helped with last week’s reunion weekend. We had some great photos and memorabilia of the history of both our parishes. It was great to look at our past. What is our legacy for the next 50 years? How will our successors look back on what we’ve done as disciples of Jesus? I hope you’ll find a way to make your mark on our parish communities by actively contributing in the best way you can.

There have been and will be many graduations in the next few days. On behalf of all of us, I want to congratulate all of the graduates and wish them well in whatever the future holds for them. As the summer approaches don’t forget that we gather every week. It’s what helps us continue to be disciples no matter what else we may do in our lives.

May God continue to bless us all.
