Attention Liturgical Ministers

The Archdiocesan Office of Worship is offering 2 opportunities for liturgical ministers. The first is a listening session for liturgical ministers to share needs and hopes for the Office of Worship. This will be held on Wed., Nov. 4 at 7 pm at St. Peter, Libertytown.

The second is a workshop of liturgical ministers on Sat., Nov. 14 from 9am-3pm at Church of the Resurrection in Ellicott City. Fr. J. Glenn Murray will be the keynote speaker and there will be breakout sessions according to liturgical function.

Please consider attending these enriching events.

A most heartfelt thanks and appreciation for your loving Mass cards, prayers, sympathy cards and phone calls on behalf of my daughter, Helen Louisa's, untimely death. Also, thank you for prayers for myself during my illness. Recovery is slow but ongoing.

Affectionately,

Veronica & Walter Kovalcheck

From Barbara . . .

“See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.” We tend to equate holiness more with pious acts rather than with right living. While spending lots of time at prayer, being at church more than required, and wearing medals are laudable in themselves, they are not sufficient in themselves for being holy. Saintliness always requires the kind of daily living that is characterized by concern for others, generosity, justice, simplicity, etc. With the Beatitudes Jesus gives us a plan for living. They are idealistic and practical at the same time. The canonized saints are held up as both ideals and human beings who lived challenging real lives. Take time this week to note how you live out each of the Beatitudes. Recognize the saints around you and the saintliness in yourself.

Tomorrow we will be celebrating the lives of our loved ones who have already entered into eternal life. I hope that you will be able to join us for this special Mass. Elsewhere in the bulletin are details about the All Souls liturgy.

I want to thank everyone who worked so hard at the Our Lady of Mount Carmel Colorfest food stand, the St. Anthony yard sale, and the regular yard sales held at St. Anthony's in the Spring/Summer. The Colorfest stand made over $5500; the St. Anthony yard sale made over $2000; and the regular yard sales brought in approximately $2000. All of this helps us to keep the work of the parishes going. So a special blessing and thank you to Karen & Randy Smith, Dot Kos and family for the Colorfest stand; Helen Reaver and family/friends for the St. Anthony yard sale; and Leo & Dave Krietz for the Spring/Summer yard sales. We couldn't have done it without you.

May God continue to bless us all.

All Souls' Day Mass

Our Lady of Mount Carmel and Saint Anthony Shrine Parishes invites you to a special celebration of the life and death of those who were buried from our parishes this past year. All are welcome to celebrate any loved ones who have died.

A special Mass will be celebrated at St. Anthony's at 7 pm on All Souls Day, November 2nd, during which your deceased loved one will be individually mentioned and remembered. Families and individuals are also welcome to attend this Mass in remembrance of babies who have been lost through miscarriage, stillbirth, and other pregnancy losses. Please join us for refreshments and fellowship following the Mass.
