From Barbara . . .

From now until Pentecost our first readings will be from the Acts of the Apostles. These readings tell the story of the early Christian communities; how they prayed, how they shared their gifts, and how they came to form the early church. We can learn a lot from these readings for our faith communities today. For example, the last two lines of today's reading are: "They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved." In many ways the responsorial psalm sums it up – "Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting." Take time this week to be aware of how your faith can influence the people around you and have them saying to themselves, how can I share in that faith.

Congratulations to our candidates who were confirmed this weekend. It's a great blessing for our entire community to have such wonderful young people stand up for their faith in such a public manner. I had the blessing to interview each of them and it was a marvelous experience. Teenagers often get a bad rap from what you see in the news. The young people I interviewed will make magnificent adults and I look forward to having them as full members of our parish communities. Thanks to all who helped prepare them and to Bishop Rozanski for celebrating with us.

Tomorrow is our Rocky's day. For every purchase using the coupon found in the bulletin Rocky's donates 15% of the bill. You can eat at the restaurant, carry-out or have it delivered to your home or place of business (within Rocky's delivery area). Please consider eating at Rocky's tomorrow and having a donation made to our parishes. There's a group that meets for dinner at 6:00 and all are welcome to join us.

May God continue to bless us all. Alleluia! Alleluia!
