The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) is sponsoring a presentation entitled "A Time to Remember, A Time to Prepare" to encourage Americans to be ready by taking simple steps to prepare for emergencies in their homes, businesses and communities. The recent earthquake and hurricane that affected Maryland and most of the East Coast serve as a reminder of our vulnerability to natural disasters. Please join John Hoyle of the Emergency Management Institute on Tuesday, November 8 from 7- 8 pm at St. Joseph's parish hall for this informative presentation.

The event is free and open to the public.

From Barbara . . .

Today's Gospel could be subtitled "The Scouting Gospel – Be Prepared." This parable is referring to the end times which when this was written the people thought would happen in their lifetime. As we know, it's a long vigil waiting for the second coming of Christ. Millennia have passed and we still wait. But this has also given us more time to prepare. For me, the more time I have to prepare the more I put it off. Jesus knows human nature and continues to remind us to be prepared spiritually for what is surely to come. The first reading speaks about Wisdom and the need to be open to what she has to offer. As we quickly approach the season of Advent (a specific time of preparation), take time this week to be wise about your spiritual preparation for life, its challenges and opportunities.

Come join us for dinner at Rocky's on Monday at 6:00 pm. There are about 15 of us that gather to share great food and conversation. If you can't join us for dinner plan to get your lunch or dinner there with the coupon found in the bulletin. Tony & Tina generously give the parishes 15% of all purchases with the coupon. Have a good meal and help the parishes at the same time – what a deal!

This week many of you received a mailing regarding the Archbishop's Capital Campaign and our parishes' projects that will benefit from the campaign. I hope that you will prayerfully consider making a pledge to help us accomplish our goals which will allow us to maintain our buildings and properties which give us spaces to provide ministries in many different areas. I thank you in advance for your generosity.

May God continue to bless us all.
